Short Description
We would never guilt, coerce or cajole our clients into choosing life. Why do we continue to guilt & cajole our pastors into speaking about life. It's time to serve our pastors with the same care and intentionality that we do our clients. They need us and the expertise we bring to the church. Many of them just don't know it yet. Together we can change that reality and bring pastor and pregnancy center leader together to see the Sanctity of Life lifted up in every church.
