Description

As a former maternity home resident, birth mother, and maternity home director, Janelle Basham has a deep understanding of the unique role maternity homes play in supporting women navigating unplanned pregnancies. In this webinar, she'll share insights on how to communicate effectively about adoption, provide valuable resources, and offer compassionate postpartum care. Janelle's personal experience of navigating adoption at the age of 16 gives her a unique perspective on how maternity homes can empower and support women through every step of their journey.
