Short Description
This one hour recorded webinar with Catherine Wood looks specifically at teen relationships.

Description
Teen dating violence, sexting, and human trafficking all make navigating the world of relationships particularly difficult for teenagers. In this webinar, you'll learn how to create a meaningful presentation for youth on teen dating and dating violence. This presentation will cover the five big "I's" of abusive relationships, helping you to equip clients, schools, and youth program to identify healthy and unhealthy relationships.

About the Presenter:
