Description
We all know that the majority of our clients have deep-rooted issues and hurts from family of origin and relationship experiences. With such complicated and deep-rooted issues at work, have you ever wondered if you are really helping your client make genuine, long lasting life changes?

In this training, Kathy will introduce you to an easy process to help your client make lasting changes in her life, and the lives of those around her. THRIVE is a client-mentoring process that gives you tools to lead your client through 7 steps that will help your client develop an awareness of the “garbage in her soul” and provide her with tools to begin to see herself as God sees her.

The end result is a woman that not only may have chosen life, but now also has the ability to live her life in freedom and wholeness. She can then pass that freedom on to her children.
