Description

Heartbeat's cornerstone staff and volunteer training now has a Lite version available in a convenient on demand training!

This abbreviated version of Heartbeat's LOVE Approach Online training is intended as a review or for staff who will not be working directly with clients. If you will be working directly with clients and have not received training, we encourage you to take our full training. Please contact elearning@heartbeatinternational.org if you aren't sure which training is right for you.

The training is approximately one hour, and covers Foundational Principles and The Four Steps of The LOVE Approach.
