By Anne Pierson

Description
The true account of Jim and Anne Pierson follows their journey from leading youth ministry in Washington, D.C. to opening and piloting a family model maternity program. This journey serves as an example and encouragement to everyone desiring to live passionately for God by reaching out to those in need of love and care. The heart and message of this book is relevant and applicable to everyone who needs to be encouraged in living out dreams, walking through doors and opening hearts touching on the realities and needs surrounding unplanned pregnancy. Includes discussion and reflection questions for personal or group study.
